Men who blow hot and cold always avoid heated arguments.

When a man does not meet with success it may be that he never entered any of the crooked ways where some people meet success and plenty of it.

High Point, not satisfied with organizing seven manufacturing enterprises during October is launching two insurance companies with $100,000 capital each.

Says the Atlanta Constitution: "President Roosevelt narrowly escaped being a Georgian." That was certainly a narrow escape he had from being disqualified as a mark for the Presidency.

The United States Army in the Philippines is still engaged in the pacification of the natives. Dato Ali and a whole lot of his followers have been put under ground where they can't interfere with the work.

President Roosevelt inveighed against lynch law when he was on his Southern trip. If any wild-eyed anarchist had made a crack at the President in one of his Southern audiences, Mr. Roosevelt would have seen some fun.

The Washington Post is authority for the statement that "a New Yorker has invented a machine that will count $1,000,000 a minute." We note the fact with peculiar interest and would like to be in a position to use that counter in our business.

The President's visit to the South was not only momentous in the respect that it established cordial relations between the head of the Republic and Southerners, but it served the purpose of demonstrating the wonders of the wireless telegraph as practically tested by the Yankee nation.

The New Orleans crowd came very nearly crushing President Roosevelt's stand. Soon afterwards he was in a steamboat collision and got off with a few scratches. The boilers of the cruiser West Virginia might have "busted," but as soon as the President would have drifted ashore anybody could tell from his smile that he was still delighted.

LOCAL DOTS.

Local on Fourth Page.

by publication in the case of th... l National Bank of Atlanta ag... e Darlington Trust Company i... ue in another column of the Star to-day.

—The artesian well outfit of Messrs. Lowry & Faulkner is now engaged in sinking a deep well on Saint James' Square for the private water works supply of residents who are building on that property.

—The alarm of fire from box 42 at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon was on account of a small blaze from a spark from the chimney at Wilmington Cotton Mill cottage, No. 65. The damage was trifling.

—The moving picture exhibition at the Academy of Music last night was very ordinary and the Red Men doubtless regret it was given under their auspices. The attendance was large on account of the local benefit.

—The Police Committee met last night at the City Hall and dismissed from the force Officer Farrar and Sub. Policeman W. A. Smith, for conduct unbecoming their official positions. No recommendations were made as to their successors.

—The local cotton market yesterday was steady at 10 1-4 cents for middling. The receipts were 6,777 bales or about one-seventh of the net receipts at all United States ports. On the same day last year spot cotton was steady at 9 3-8 cents; the receipts only 3,944 bales.

—The Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold an important meeting tonight in its hall in the new I. Shrier building on North Front street. The election of a House Committee will be held as well as other business pertaining to the welfare of the order will be transacted. Members are urgently requested to be in attendance.

—The American barque Arlington, Capt. Fickett, arrived yesterday from Baltimore with cargo for the Armour Fertilizer Works. The schooner J. Howell Leeds, for New York, is anchored off the bar after having put to sea, and the schooner Adelbert Ames, cleared for Portland, Maine, are awaiting favorable weather to proceed.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of the Cape Fear Trading Company, which may be found in another column of to-day's paper. Mr. J. B. Taylor is manager of the store which recently moved into new and handsome quarters at Fourth and Campbell streets. Quick service, the best in every line and prompt delivery is assured to every patron.

—The highest normal tides ever witnessed at Wrightsville Beach prevailed Saturday night and Sunday morning. The water came way up under Lumina, washed the board walk away on the ocean side of the pavilion and left the steps a foot above the sand it carried away. A number of electric light poles on the ocean front were washed away.

—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Barney L. Rogers, No. 1213 North Fifth street sympathize with them deeply in the death of their little 4-year-old daughter, Gertha May, which occurred at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon of acute indigestion. The funeral will be conducted by Rev. Geo. B. Webster at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be sent to Florence, S. C., for interment.

—On Friday night at the meeting of the Jr. O. U. A. M., in the rooms over the Murchison National Bank several distinguished Juniors will be present and make addresses. Among those who will be present are State Councilor Z. P. Smith and Hon. W. E. Faison, of Raleigh, a past National Councilor. On Friday afternoon a trip will be taken to Wrightsville Beach for an oyster roast.

—Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, last night had work in the third rank and after the exercises discussed enthusiastically the arrangements for the celebration of "Pythian Night," on the anniversary of the founding of the order here in 1870. The other Pythian lodges of the city will take the matter up at their meetings this week and a general observance of the anniversary will take place.

Before the Mayor Yesterday.

Only three cases engaged the attention of the Mayor in the police court yesterday. Rev. Luther Pigford, colored, had slapped his wife and been haled to court, but at the last moment his helpmeet came forward, effected a reconciliation, withdrew the warrant and paid the costs. Her heart melted, she said, when she saw the "Reverend" in the prisoner's dock and knew how humiliated he was. Ella Gause, colored, was charged with the larceny of silk skirts and other garments from the residence of Mr. T. J. Capel, Fourth, between Bladen and Harnett streets, where she had been employed as a cook. She went to jail for the higher court. A white man with a Saturday night jag was let off with the costs.

Inspect New Cars.

General Manager A. B. Skelding expects to leave to-day or to-morrow to inspect and receive the three handsome new enclosed street cars, recently built in the shops of the J. G. Brill Company, in Philadelphia, for the Consolidated Company of this city. The cars are for the city line and will add materially to the equipment here. The cars are now completed and as soon as they are inspected and formally received, they will be shipped to Wilmington.

COURT OPENS TO-DAY

United States Circuit and District Terms Begin in Wilmington This Morning

TRIAL OF THE MUTINEERS

Case of Scott, Adams and Sawyer Will Probably Not Be Reached Until Late in the Week—District Attorney Looks Over Ship.

The United States Court was regularly opened here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by the clerk and Office Deputy Marshal J. T. Sharp, of Raleigh, but upon the non-arrival of Judge Purnell at 1 o'clock in the afternoon a recess was taken until 9 o'clock this morning. Marshal H. C. Dockery and others of his office force arrived in the early afternoon and Judge Purnell reached the city last evening. Court will meet this morning and organize for the term, which is one of the most important at Wilmington in recent years, and which will probably continue for two weeks or more. There are 97 criminal cases on the docket, a review of which has been given in these columns, several in admiralty and a number of Circuit Court matters.

Among the officers in attendance upon the court, not mentioned above, are Col. Harry Skinner, of Raleigh, district attorney; Mr. J. A. Giles, of Durham, assistant district attorney; Mr. S. P. Collier, the clerk; Mr. James K. Collier, deputy clerk; Messrs. John C. Dockery and Jno. T. Sharp, office deputy marshals. Among the commissioners present are ex-Judge Thos. H. Sutton, of Fayetteville, L. B. Tucker, of Whiteville, and W. T. Pinner, of Southport. The court will meet this morning and organize by the selection of a grand jury and the swearing-in of the usual number of court officers. The cases as far as possible from the several counties will be taken up in the following order: Columbus, Cumberland, Robeson, Brunswick, Sampson, Pender, Bladen, Richmond, New Hanover, Scotland and Duplin.

Already the county jail is filling up with prisoners for the Federal Court. Deputy Marshal J. A. Colvin, of Fayetteville, having brought four whites and six negroes Sunday night; Deputy Marshal E. W. Fuhr, three whites and two colored, from Columbus, and Deputy Marshal H. P. Clark, two colored from Bladen, making a total of 17 from those three counties alone. Those from Cumberland are Harriet Jenrett, N. T. Williams and J. T. Reaves, white; John Bellamy and Richard Flowers, colored. Those from Bladen are Jack Melvin and Judge McNeill, both colored. One of them is charged with robbing the postoffice at Clarkton.

The greatest interest, of course, centers about the trial of Scott, Adams and Sawyer, the negroes in jail, charged with mutiny and murder aboard the schooner Harry A. Berwind, which is still here at Skinner's shipyard, undergoing repairs. The trial of the negroes will probably not be reached before the last of the week, but the grand jury will likely act on the bill of indictment earlier. Capt. J. W. Taylor, of the schooner Blanche H. King, which went to the rescue of the Berwind and took the negroes off the ill-fated vessel, with his mate and three members of the crew arrived Sunday from Philadedphia to testify in the case, as did also Mr. David Stetson, owner's agent of the Berwind. Capt. Tom Barrett came along with the party and will take charge of the Berwind, succeeding Capt. Rumill, when the vessel is ready to proceed to Philadelphia.

Col. Harry Skinner, the district attorney, has taken a lively interest in the case, and with Assistant District Attorney Giles, Capt. Taylor, Mr. Stetson and others yesterday afternoon went down aboard the schooner at the marine railway. So far as is known Scott has employed no counsel. Adams and Sawyer have engaged George L. Peschau, Esq., of the Wilmington bar. The trial is expected to attract a very large crowd. There have been no developments of importance in the case since the prisoners were confined here ten days ago. Scott remains ugly and the two other prisoners in mortal tertor of their lives, still protesting their innocence and laying all the responsibility at the door of Scott.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon has the following:

"The regular afternoon train for Wilmington yesterday was dubbed by the bystanders as the Federal Court excursion train, and it was well named, for it pulled away from here with almost a hundred witnesses, officers and prisoners.

"These excursions to the Federal Court are becoming so frequent, and even increasing in numbers, that the necessity and economy of establishing a Federal Court in Fayetteville is self evident.

Deputy United State Marshal Colvin, with a number of assistants, was in charge of the prisoners, who included the following, who have been in jail here: Thos. Matthews, Jno. H. Matthews and Walter Ferrall, white; and Link Williams, William Brown, Dan Dixon, James Murchison, George Hodges, Shepherd Wright, colored—all charged with retailing. Then there were a number of defendants who were under bond for their appearance at this court, charged with selling whiskey—chief among them the well know negro, Sidney McQueen.

The number of witnesses is too great to enumerate, but among them were: Policeman J. H. Benton and Fred Buckingham and Messrs. Thos. Powers, Dan Brown and W. H. Wade. Ex-Judge T. H. Sutton was also among those who went down to attend the court."

PRETTY HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Luther League of Saint Paul's Church Gave Delightful Affair in Memorial Building Last Night.

The Luther League of Saint Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church last night delightfully entertained a large party of friends at a unique and altogether pleasing Hallowe'en party given in the assembly hall on the second floor of the Luther Memorial building, Sixth and Princess streets. The room was prettily decorated in red, blue and yellow. Japanese lanterns with rantastic transparencies and other pieces suggestive of the Hallowe'en season were used to splendid effect.

The party on the platform was denominated "A Ghostly Gathering of Sprightly Spooks and Winsome Witches" and collectively and individually the company of players well acted their parts.

The exercises opened with a march, "Tam O'Shanter," delightfully rendered by Mrs. E. Schulken. Then came the "Witches' Drill" by the young ladies of the League with Mrs. J. T. Runge as piano accompanist. Those who participated were Misses Gesina Mohr, Louise Vollers, Ruth Stolter, Henrietta Fick, Katie Bornemann, Katie Gerdes, Anna Tiencken, Emma Otersen, Annie Khlander, Clara Bornemann, Carlotta Muegge and Annie Meyland

A duet, "Keepsake" (H. W. Petrie), was rendered with charming effect by Misses Louise and Katherine Vollers and Miss Carlotta Muegge recited with evidence of rare talent "The Elf Child." Miss Anna Tiencken played a piano solo, "Heart's Wishes," (H. Lichner) with all the exquisite touch and precision of an accomplished pianist. Mr. A. D. Christoffersen, president of the Luther League, captivated the audience with the humorous selection, "Seein' Things." Mr. Ferdinand Duls was very entertaining with his piano solo, "Dorg Monance," (Ch. Watchman) and Miss Etta Fick gave pleasure with the reading "That Ghost."

Miss Ruth Stolter sang "Auld Lang Syne," introducing the merry ghost drill, "Witches Meet Auld Acquaintances," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Schulken. The young men in the drill were Messrs. A. D. Christoffersen, Luther Wessell, John Oldenattel, David Seifert, Willie Cronenberg, John Meyland, Louis Hanson and Carl Fick.

The entertainment closed with refreshments and games and the guests voted the occasion one of the most pleasant in their lives. Light refreshmnts were sold by the young ladies of the League from a pretty Hallowe'en booth, Miss Elsie Otersen being in charge while the others participated in the witches' drill.

ELKS' MERRY MINSTRELS.

Grubbs Syndicate Writes For Date During Month of December.

Secretary H. J. Gerken, of Wilmington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E., yesterday received a letter from Mr. S. A. Grubbs, manager of the syndicate of minstrel promoters who will engineer the big minstrel fete to be given under the auspices of the Wilmington Elks for the benefit of their charity fund, some time during the month of December. Mr. Grubbs and his assistants are now in Williamsport, Pa., arranging for a big minstrel production in that city and Secretary Gerken's letter of inquiry was forwarded to him there from the headquarters of the syndicate in Chicago. The promoters have dates in Athens, Ga., Atlanta, Savannah and Jacksonville, Fla., and the manager writes that he would be glad to include Wilmington in the circuit during the month of December. The terms have already been agreed upon and the Executive Committee of the Wilmington Lodge will meet at once and launch the arrangements for the elaborate affair. In view of the approach of Winter, the object for which the production will be given will appeal strongly to the public to say nothing of the artistic value of the attraction, which will be worth every cent that the box office can command. There will be much work among the poor during the Winter and the quiet, unostentatious way in which the charity is dispensed by the Elks commends the minstrel performance to everybody.

MANAGEMENT OF LUMINA.

Mr. "Dick" Stokley, Succeeds Messrs. Gerken & Morrison.

Messrs. Gerken & Morrison, under whose capable management the Winter season at Luminia opened so auspiciously a few weeks ago, on yesterday terminated their connection with the amusements, etc. there, and have been succeeded in the management of the place by Mr. "Dick" Stokley, who also has charge of "The Lighthouse," on the Sound. Messrs. Gerken & Morrison took hold of and conducted Lumina with splendid possibilities for the time, but for business reasons they decided to terminate their management and turn the place over to Mr. Stokley, a satisfactory arrangement all around having been reached. Mr. Stokley will continue to run the place along the up-to-date lines inaugurated by the orgiinal lessees and Lumina will no doubt continue to enjoy popular favor.

The Sorosis Reception.

The reception by the North Carolina Sorosis from 5 to 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening in the rooms of the organization, in the Odd Fellows' building, was largely attended and was quite a delightful social affair. The rooms were prettily decorated and brilliantly lighted. The work of Sorosis received quite an impetus and those who were present were charmed with the delightful entertainment afforded them.

NEGRO BADLY CARVED

Stood on Corner and Slashed All Up By Companion While He Waited

THEN HE WENT TO HOSPITAL

Throat Cut, Nose Split, Cheek Laid Open, Finger Amputated, All at One Operation by Black Man Handy With Knife.

A frightful example of just what can be accomplished by a member of his race, when keyed up to the proper notch with cheap corn liquor, and armed with a knife or "razzer," Mark Montgomery, colored, 21 years of age, appeared at the James Walker Memorial Hospital early this morning and asked that his anatomy be given the attention that the occasion seemed to require.

He was crimson from head to foot and bore every evidence of having been in the hands of the Philistines. He had been slashed a long gash across the throat, from side to front; across the nose from cheek to cheek and again down the cheek, while one of the fingers of the left hand dangled down as if hanging by a thread. With the exception of the nearly amputated finger the wounds are thought to be superficial, though the negro bled profusely. His assailant evidently intended to make a complete job of it, but the edge of his weapon, a razor or a knife, was apparently not keen enough to penetrate to the depths that were intended.

Montgomery lays the cutting at the door of Carey Johnson, colored, but says he has no idea why Carey should have assaulted him. Shortly after midnight he said he was standing up at or near corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets and that Johnson came over and deliberately began to wield the knife or razor with no other provocation or purpose in view than to finish him up on the spot. He said that he had no words with the man and that he acted like he was crazy. Back of the cutting, however, it is expected that there was bad blood between the negroes and that Montgomery will not out with it.

Soon after the cutting, Johnson disappeared and his arrest was not accomplished. Montgomery managed to attract attention some way and was finally taken out to the hospital. He is badly disfigured for life as his wounds would indicate and he will probably lose the finger of his left hand. Unless the throat-cut proves more serious than expected, the negro will recover. He was able to be taken home by his friends after the wounds were dressed at the hospital.

THANKSGIVING RECEPTION.

Elaborate Event Being Arranged at Walker Memorial Hospital.

It will be a source of great pleasure to the public to know that certain of the ladies of the city, numbered among the enthusiasts in the work, are arranging for another elaborate reception to be given Thanksgiving afternoon and evening at the James Walker Memorial Hospital. Those who attended the reception at the hospital last year upon a similar occasion will remember it quite pleasantly and will be pleased to know that it will be repeated. Definite arrangements have not been completed, but the plans are being enthusiastically discussed and will be chrystallized at a meeting to be held soon. The "Donation Day" feature will be made prominent and all those who feel able and willing to do something for the work, will be given opportunity to do so. The proceeds will doubtless be applied to the fund for the new laundry plant, recently installed. More will be said of the Thanksgiving reception in connection with the arrangements later.

The Carnival Attachment.

Through John D. Bellamy & Son and William J. Bellamy, Esq., of this city, attorneys for Kalil Nader, the Syrian suing the Jones & Adams Carnival Company for $2,204 for alleged breach of contract, a further attachment was served Saturday night upon the property of Jones & Adams at Maxton, N. C., just as the shows were preparing to leave for Marion, S. C. However, Mrs. Adams, wife of one of the proprietors, exhibited a bill of sale for nearly all of the property seized and the show departed after giving bond for the remainder of the stuff. The case will come up here for trial at the term of court beginning Dec. 4th. The complaint in the suit brought to maintain the attachment, was served yesterday upon Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, attorneys for the carnival company.

Levied An Execution.

An execution issued yesterday from the Clerk of the Superior Court in an action brought by the estate of the late Sol. Bear and Sol Bear & Company against Mr. James Berg, the grocer, at southwest corner of Fifth and Nixon streets, the claims having been $101.82 and $137.50 The execution was served last night by Constable Savage for the sheriff, but Mr. Berg later settled the matter up with Hon. John D. Bellamy, counsel for the plaintiffs, and the store was immediately re-opened.

Elks' Buffet Service.

Mr. W. F. Tilley, chief clerk at the Dixie Cafe for the past several months and a young man of experience and affability, has resigned that position and to-day will take charge of the buffet service of the Elks' Club. He is well qualified for the new position, and will no doubt make a great success of the undertaking.

DISORDERLY NEGROES COOPED.

One Who Wanted Friends Out of Trouble, Himself Jugged.

This is the story of a man who went to get his friends out of trouble and got into trouble himself. Yesterday shortly after noon, at Third and Harnett streets, Policemen J. J. Moore and D. W. Walker ran in upon J. M. Hall, Jim Pearsall and Bob Pearsall, three half-drunken negroes from the compress. They were disorderly and threatening trouble. The officers placed them under arrest and had trouble with them while waiting for the police patrol. Finally they were bundled in and sent on to the station house. A negro named Gause followed the wagon to the City Hall and applied upstairs to the Sergeant for bail for his comrades. He, too, was drunk and with the frightful example of his friends before him he got ugly in the building; was very insolent to the officers and finally got so boisterous that Sergeant Woolard ordered him downstairs and a charge of disorderly conduct was entered against him. He refused to tell his name, but the Mayor will likely be able to get the information from him to-day at noon. Jim Pearsall, one of the three original negroes arrested, had the additional charge of resisting an officer booked up against him.

TOBACCO TAG PACKAGES.

Trouble For Postoffice People and Punishment For Postal Violators.

The tobacco tag premium fad has made lots of trouble for the postoffice people. Everybody knows that packages of merchandise are mailable at a much cheaper rate than first class or letter mail matter and that first class mail matter enclosed in a package of the lower class, makes the whole mailable at the higher rate. But many people do not apply their knowledge in this respect to their actions when they go to mail a package and either for the sake of convenience or to save postage, they bundle up a written letter and the merchandise all together and put it in the post. Just now the Postoffice Department has inaugurated a systematic effort to put an end to the evil and has its own means of finding out when the law is violated. Yesterday one patron of the Wilmington office was fined $10 by Postmaster Wallace and others are said to be on "the anxious seat." This notice should be a warning to those who have packages to mail in the future.

Improvements at Postoffice.

Although a great many improvements have been made at the Wilmington postoffice, still others will be made in the very near future. Postmaster T. E. Wallace is now entertaining bids for the enlargement of the money order department by moving the screen further out, for vestibuling the mail platform at the rear of the building and for putting in one or more dormer windows. The improvements will begin as soon as possible after the contract is awarded.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF NEW HANOVER. THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF ATLANTA, VS DARLINGTON TRUST COMPANY.

To the defendant above named, Take Notice:

That this action was instituted on July 19, 1905, and that an attachment was issued in this case, and levied on said day on all the indebtedness of the Atlantic National Bank to the Darlington Trust Company then owing.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday Morning, October 31.

RATE LEGISLATION.

Nearly every paper from the Atlantic to the Pacific has been discussing President Roosevelt's Raleigh speech on railroad rate legislation. One of the papers to discuss it and endorse it fully is Col. William J. Bryan's paper, The Commoner. That paper pronounces it the fullest and completest expression that the President has made on the subject since his message to Congress at its last session.

The President's speech has stirred up discussion all over the United States on this important and grave subject. One of the interesting results of the President's Raleigh speech is that the New Orleans Picayune has begun the work of polling the Democratic members of Congress from the Southern States, with a view to securing a popular expression of opinion from the Southern standpoint. The Picayune sent telegrams to a number of Senators and Representatives asking them for their views. Our esteemed and enterprising contemporary in Saturday's issue published several replies, among them one from the Hon. John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, Democratic leader of the House of Representatives. Mr. Williams gives his views at length and takes an emphatic stand in favor of the President's position and the proposed legislation for government control of railroads He expresses the opinion that a bill of such character wil pass both houses of Congress at its coming session. Among other things, Mr. Williams says, in his communication, dated at Yazoo, Miss., Oct. 27th:

"In answer to your telegram: Every Democrat ought to support President Roosevelt in his demand for railroad rate legislation. I deny, however, any right of paternity in the President. The proposed legislation was outlined in a bill introduced by the Democratic leader in the House of Representatives, after consultation with many of his colleagues, nearly a year before the President opened his mouth upon the subject. In a speech upon the floor the Republicans were challenged by him to take it up and pass it as a matter of pure justice to the shippers of the country. The temporary Chairman of the National Democratic Convention dwelt upon the substance of the demand at considerable length and charged the Republican party with recreancy to public duty because it had made no effort to vitalize and virilize the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Democratic platform adopted by that convention demanded, though in somewhat general terms, the proposed legislation.

"We genuine Democrats welcome the President to our ranks and are glad that he is broad enough, partiotic enough and just enough to help us give American agriculture and commerce a square deal. Even if the President had been the originator of the proposed legislation, even if his party had originated the idea, instead of sidetracking like legislation as they always have done, we ought still to support the legislation because it is just and right.

"'He serves his party best who serves his country well,' and the man is but a narrow bigot who refuses to do a just thing because he does not like the source whence it comes."

The Picayune does not take issue with Mr. Williams but in an editorial it takes a different view to his. The Picayune says:

"It is apparent to every observer that there will be in the next session of Congress a strenuous and bitter fight over the movement to place the fixing of railway freight rates in the control of a Federal bureau.

"There has been growing up steadily for several decades past a desire on the part of the American people to concentrate power in the hands of the Federal government to such an extent that there is scarcely any right which the people wish to reserve to themselves. It grows out of the socialistic, leveling doctrines which are being preached broadcast, and which at first were regarded with extreme disfavor and condemnation, but which are now being entertained by great numbers of the masses of the population.

"This growing disposition towards state socialism is the swing of the pendulum of popular opinion to the opposite extreme, as it rebounds from the despotism of trustism and the money power which have grown up under the control and fostering care of the Republican party to be a menace to the liberties of the people and to the perpetuity of the Republic.

"The growth and multiplication of vast private fortunes are the fruits of Republican party domination for so many years, and public opinion, swinging to the other extreme, demands government restraint and control of the capital and capitalistic combinations which have been created under government protection and fostering.

"Strangely enough, the demand is not that the power to deal with the evils of trusts and combinations shall be kept in the hands of the people, but that it shall be lodged with a government bureau armed with full power to make rates and regulations, and virtually to make laws on the subject. Already the avowed Socialists demand that the Federal government shall take control of all wealth and of the entire business of production and give the population a new deal in everything."

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

This great American monthly for November is out, and it is a treat for readers. The character of the matter is up to the Atlantic's high standard, and among the numerous timely and valuable articles is one on "Immigration and the South," by Robert Decourcy Ward. The table of contents embraces many other superior contributions and the literary features are as usual most excellent. Subscription price $4.00 a year; 35 cents per copy. Address: Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 4 Park St., Boston.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—He—Tell me, darling, precious, angel, will you be mine? She—Well, so long as father is to pay the bills, it looks like you are to be mine.—New York Mail.

—"Thought you said that auto you sold me was a 20-horse-power?" "So it is." "Well, it isn't; the first horse I ran over put it out of business."—Houston Post.

—Miss Beach—Did you have any opportunity to wear your bathing suit while in the mountains? Miss Forrest—Oh, yes; it rained nearly the whole time I was there.—Yonkers Statesman.

—The Count—My dear sir, your daughter has a frightful temper, I can't put up with it. His American Father-in-Law—You're right. If I hear any more complaints I'll disinherit her.—N. Y. Life.

—Algernon—I heah that you and Clawrence had an altahcation lawst night and he called youah evahthing. Percival—Yaws, but I got even with him, deah boy. I called him nothing, doncher know.—Chicago Daily News.

—Employer (engaging foreign correspondence clerk)—Is it true, as I see by your letter, that you have mastered all the European tongues? Clerk—All except two, sir. Employer—And which are they? Clerk—My wife and her mother's.—Kansas City Independent.

—French Maid (to inquiring friend)—Oui, madame is ill, but ze doctor haf pronounced it something very trifling, very small. Friend—Oh, I am so relieved, for I was really anxious about her. What does the doctor say the trouble is? French Maid—Let me recall. It was something very leetle. Oh! I have it now. Ze doctor says zat madame has ze smallpox.—The Tatler.

TWINKLINGS.

—While the President is not generally looked upon as an artist, it has been demonstrated that he draws well with white and black.—Washington Post.

—A man serving a two-years jail sentence in Durham, N. C., asks the privilege of a telephone in his cell. The luxuriousness of crime nowadays is truly wonderful.—Norfolk Landmark.

—Washington reports that big improvements are being made in the United State Senate and House of Representatives. This does not refer to the membership, however.—Atlanta Journal.

—Russia would have bid high for the services of that "United State captain of marines who whipped ten Japs" because one of them kicked his dog. Or is this only a tale for marines?—New York World.

—"They do tell that Raleigh is roaring and ranting because of the criticisms which have been made in connection with the State Fair. There's only one thing for the capital city to do and that is to pass the Fair along where it will be well taken care of. Asheville, for instance.—Asheville Citizen.

Viewed from any angle, ignorance is the costliest crop that can be raised in any part of this union. So said the president in his Tuskegee talk; and the utterance is a whole book of wisdom compressed into a nineteen-word tabloid. To comment upon it would be to gild a thing that needs no gilding.—Philadelphia Record.

—When the Seaboard Air Line's new line from Merry Oaks to Durham is completed—and work is progressing rapidly—it will be virtually to give that road a double track from Henderson to Merry Oaks. One line will come through Raleigh and one line through Durham. It will prevent the congestion that often makes delay between Henderson and Raleigh.—Raleigh News and Observer.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, October 30.—After some early irregularity the cotton market firmed up on a bullish crop estimate by a prominent English authority and predictions for bad weather in the norwestern belt and closed within two or three points of the top at a net advance 15 to 18 points. Sales were estimated at 450,000 bales. The market opened firm at an advance of 4 to 6 points in spite of rather disappointing cables and shortly afterwards showed a net gain of 7 to 9 points on covering by sellers of last week who were disappointed over the strength of Russian securities abroad, which gave trouble in that country a less bullish aspect. On the advance, however, there was a good deal of realizing and when the big estimates for tomorrow's receipts at New Orleans and Houston were received the market turned weak under renewal of bear pressure and sold off to a net loss of 4 to 5 points or ascend 10.45 for January. From this level there was a gradual rally toward midday, on predictions for snow in the northwestern belt, and during the afternoon prices were generally firm on the estimate by a Liverpool crop expert's placing the yield at 10,250,000 bales maximum and predictions that the figures would influence Liverpool tomorrow. Toward the close there was considerable realizing and the final tone was barely steady.

Receipts at the ports today were 57,635 bales against 46,806 last week and 94,981 last year. For the week estimated 310,000 bales against 293,913 last week and 440,929 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 11,455 bales against 31,041 last year and at Houston 18,534 bales against 11,183 last year.

HIS BLIGHTED LIFE

Blessings and Benefits of Keeley Told By Man Who Experienced It.

CRAVING FOR LIQUOR CURED

Outpouring of Grateful Soul Who Was Saved from Slavery to Terrible Habit—High Impulses Restored.—Homes Benefited.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

It is with genuine pleasure that I bear testimony to the untold benefits and blessings that the Keeley Institute has brought to the lives and homes of those who have been cured by the wonderful treatment which is administered there. When one has been lifted from the loathsome state of a drunkard, and realizes that the craving for liquor has left him; that his head is clear, his step steady, his mind and heart animated by high impulses, he then realizes the poverty of words to express his gratitude to those who have been instrumental in bringing about such a change in his condition. I appreciate the Keeley Cure for what it has done for me and my friends, and especially what it has done, through me, for my own family. Apart from being relieved from the drink habit at Keeley Institute, my stay there was rendered pleasant by the kind and humane treatment of all those in charge, and by the courteous bearing of those who took the treatment with me. I will not undertake to tell of the horrors, and shame, and suffering, and gloom which liquor has brought to my own life, to say nothing of what has come under my observation, but the Keeley Cure lifted the plight of drunkenness from my own threshold and brought down the sunshine, wafted in the health-giving breezes, and I bless the day that I had the privilege of entering the Institute.

HAD CATARRH

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS AND DREADED CONSUMPTION.

Mr. Arthur Gaul of Wellsville, Ohio, writes: "I wish every one suffering from catarrh or bronchial troubles knew the value of Vinol as I do. Before taking it I had catarrh for fifteen years, and for the last year I had a pain in my lungs and coughed night and day, which caused me to lose flesh. I felt sure I was going into consumption, as nothing seemed to help me.

"Vinol was recommended, and after taking four bottles I am entirely cured. I would not take $1.000 for the good it has done me. I wish I could persuade everybody who suffers from catarrh and bronchial troubles, or, who dreads consumption, to try Vinol."

"To further convince the people of Wilmington in regard to the value of Vinol, I, Robert R. Bellamy, declared it to be the most valuable preparation Vinol. I. Robert R. Bellamy, declare the greatest health restorer and strength creator for the weak, the convalescent and the aged which we have ever sold.

"I can only ask every person in Wilmington to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails. This is a fair, honest offer on which you cannot lose. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist. **

New Cure for Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it, and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c. ata R. R. Bellamy's drug store. **

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, billiousness, Bright's disease, and simlar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At R. R. Bellamy's drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed. **

Full of Tragic Meaning.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At R. R. Bellamy, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The farmers of Catawba county this season have raised 1,500,000 bushels of sweet potatoes worth $1,000,000.

—A handsome modern office building is to be erected in Asheville, at the corner of Maine and College streets, on the site occupied by the Buck Hotel, one of the oldest wooden buildings in Asheville.

—The Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory o. Music, of Red Springs, has received a condi.ional gift of $4,000 from George W. Watts, of Durham. The condition is that the college shall raise $6,000.

—Dunn Guide: The grading on the extension of the pass track for the Atlantic Coast Line is about completed. This extension will give about one and a half miles of pass track at this place. It will hold two trains of sixty cars each."

—Tom Ewell, a notoriously desperate negro, was arrested at Mooresville, Mecklenburg county, on Saturday and taken to jail at Salisbury. He was wanted in Rowan county for breaking into Mr. J. A. Fore's residence some time ago and stealing a dress suit case, a suit of clothes and a hat.

—Charlotte Observer: A mill for the manufacture of coarse yarns is the latest of Charlotte's many new enterprises. For some time past, several out-of-town parties have been negotiating with this in view, but only recently have their plans reached that stage where something might be said of them. It is the purpose of the promoters to start with a comparatively small capital, of some $50,000, and as the business of the mill increases to enlarge the plant.

—Clarkton Express: On the 22nd of last February Prof. Carlyle, of Wake Forest, delivered an educational address in the church at Abbottsville. An election was held shortly afterwards and a special school tax was voted, only three votes being cast against it. Prof. Carlyle spoke at Abbottsburg again last Saturday, not in a church, but in a new $2,000 school building. Three districts have been consolidated, and the school opened on last Monday with an enrollment of 110.

—Stanly Enterprise: Willie and Gaines Whitley, of this place, are at the A. and M. College at Raleigh and expect to continue there until they graduate. The beauty of it is, these bright boys are paying their own way. They have worked hard and have saved up money for the purpose. Last summer during the hot days of July and August they were with the surveying corps through this county, and one of the boys had a bank account of more than $300 when he went off to college.

—At Winston-Salem Saturday night Monroe Shipley aged 37 years, a hard-working blacksmith, was run over and killed by a trolley car. Just how the accident occurred no one could tell. He had just gotten off one car and a few minutes previously remarked to a fellow passenger: "I guess some people think I get drunk too much, but I don't think I do. I've made as much money this week as any man in Centerville, I guess." Centerville is a suburb of Winston-Salem. Shipley leaves a demented wife and five small children.

—Raeford Facts and Figures: In 1899 this editor made the tax list in Troy township, Montgomery county, and Capt. Milt Jones gave in $2,500 worth of property; we assisted in making the list in 1900 and he gave in property valued at $30,000. He had sold his saw-mill and timber interest. Now he owns a controlling interest in the rich gold mine, located near Candor, in the State, and they say the longest one-man railroad in the country. But the man who started that story about Jones owning the longest one-man railroad hadn't heard of the Aberdeen and Rockfish.

—Greensboro correspondence: The Tar Heel Publishing Company has placed the order with the Southern Printers' Supply Company, of Washington for a complete outfit, including a modern press for the publication of the Weekly Tar Heel, the Republican newspaper to be established in Greensboro by Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn, and his friends. Mr. G. S. Bradshaw, of this city, is to be the editor, and it is announced that the first issue will appear November 9th. The promoters of the Tar Heel state that the paper will start off with a bona fide subscription list of over 5,000.

—Spencer correspondence, Charlotte Observer, Oct. 29th: "A serious fight occurred on the fair grounds here last night in which Jim Porter, colored, came near being used up by an infuriated crowd of white men. Because some mischievious boys threw confetti into the face of a woman, with whom Porter was talking in the carnival, the latter whipped out a pistol and began firing promiscously into the crowd. In an instant a dozen strong men were on top of the pistol toater, who was dangerously beaten before he could be subdued. In the meantime, two or more of the white men received severe stabs from which the blood flowed freely. A lynching was narrowly averted by the negro's being spirited to jail."

—Raleigh correspondence, Charlotte Observer, Oct. 29th: "Public interest here to-day centered on the fire which destroyed the main building of the Roman Catholic orphanage at Nazareth, two miles from Raleigh. The building was of brick, four stories high, and was dedicated three years ago by Arch-Bishop Gadd, and was to form part of an extensive quadrangle. In it were the rooms of several priests, seminaries and large boys, the lower floor being the office of Truth, the church paper, and the rectory. Two of the boys, Elvin Buffalo, of Raleigh, and Thomas Glarist, of Columbus county, who were on the fourth floor, went on the roof, and Thomas Wallace, of New York, a seminarian, made a daring and remarkable climb up a buttress, got to the boys and incited them to jump and they leaped. They landon matresses piled below. Glarist died to-night in an improvised hospital at the orphanage. Buffalo is not expected to recover and may die to-night. Wallace will recover, though badly injured. Father Price says Father O'Brien, who jumped from the third floor, is slightly injured. The building cost $25,000 and there is only $6,000 insurance. It will be rebuilt. Father Price, the head of the institution, says no other person in the buildings were injured."

H. W. Bragg, merchant and furniture-manufacturer, of Second and Market streets, residing at 114 North Sixth street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved to be a grand medicine, and I can also say that I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills is our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up as straight as ever and the kidney secretions have au cleared up. You may use my name as an endorser of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and also Doan's Ointment which I used with good results."

UNIFORM MUST BE RESPECTED

Roosevelt to Break up Discrimination Against Jackies and Soldiers.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, October 28.—The President has determined to do all that he can to break up the growing of discrimination in public places of amusements and public resorts and hotels against the blue packets and other soldiers. Secretary Bonaparte's action yesterday in dismissing from the civil service with a scathing rebuke an employe in the Norfolk navy yard, who refused to shelter a petty officer of the navy because he wore sailor's clothing, is an indication of the executive purpose. It has been the subject of many official reports to the Navy Department particularly that sailors of unblemished record and perfectly correct habits have been refused admission to theatres and entertainments in hotels because they wore a uniform which the President believes should be honored in all parts of the land. Soldiers have suffered in lesser degree from this discrimination.

POWERS TO OVERAWE TURKEY.

Combined Naval Demonstration Will Probably Be Made.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Vienna, Oct. 28.—It is announced that the powers have decided to make a demonstration against Turkey's Asiatic, but not her European ports, in order to avoid the appearance of giving encouragement to the Macedonia insurgents, and that simultaneously a collective note will be presented to Turkey.

Engineer Jacob C. Murray and his fireman, John Jennings, were instantly killed in a head-on collision between an extra freight southbound and a local freight northbound train fifteen miles north of Roanoke, Va., yesterday on the Shenandoah division of the Norfolk & Western railway. The dead men were on the engine of the extra train. The engine crew of the local freight escaped by jumping, though several other trainmen were more or less injured.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

FRIGHTFUL WRECK NEAR KANSAS CITY

Twelve Killed and Thirty Injured—Rails Spread With Train Speeding 50 Miles an Hour.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 30.—At least thirteen persons were killed and twenty-five other injured to-day in the wreck of one of the fastest trains of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway, California limited No. 1, which left Chicago at 10 o'clock last night for the far West. The train was ditched one mile east of Sheffield, Mo., six miles from the business center of Kansas City.

The wreck occurred in a cut while the train was running at the rate of 50 miles an hour and was caused by spreading rails.

The train was made up of vestibuled cars and while the vestibules prevented telescoping in a measure, the speed of the train was so great that it caused several of the cars to pile up on top of each other, tearing out the connections. The wreckage was piled high, and under it, scores of passengers and members of the crew were buried.

Relief trains carrying many physicians, were sent out from Kansas City shortly before noon and preparations made to bring the dead and injured to Kansas City.

Twelve of the dead were identified, but the other dear had not been identified and will not be until the arrival of the coroner. Most of them are immigrants en route from the East to Los Angeles.

Joseph Seymour, one of the killed, was the cashier of the Ray county Savings Bank at Richmond, Mo. John MacGregor, another of the killed, was an engineer on the Santa Fe, who had been transferred to one of the western divisions of the road, and was on his way to take his new run. Most of the injured were in the smoker.

The train consisted of one mail car, one baggage car, one coach, one chair car, four tourists' sleeping cars, two standard Pullman's and one dining car. The passenger list was composed largely of colonization tourists.

Nearly all the sleeping cars remained on the track and the forward cars bore the brunt of the shock. None of the passengers in the sleeping cars was hurt. The day coach in front of the chair car furnished the greatest number of killed and injured.

The great natural wall of rough stone into which the cars were thrown tore the sides off the day coaches, and passengers were ground against the wall, and each killed or badly injured.

One of the first bodies removed was that of the dining car porter, Randolph Richardson. When killed he was passing through one of the rear cars and had just made the announcement: "Last call for breakfast."

J. D. Whitemore, one of the injured, was in the smoker where there was an old fashioned heater. He was thrown in such a way that one leg was jammed into the broken heater in contract with the live coals. He was so covered with debris that he could not get out and his foot was burned until it must be amputated.

H. G. Rust, engineer of the wrecked train, and his fireman, William de long, escaped injury. The locomotive leaped from the rails and ran 300 feet on the ties, finally stopped uprigh.

The wreck was caused by striking a loose rail. The locomotive was going so rapidly that it passed the rail in safety. The main car immediately behind jumped the track and struck the side of the bluff and the four cars following ploughed through the wreckage and shot against the high stone wall. The sides of the coaches were crushed against the rough stone, killing and wounding passengers and trainmen.

The smoking car, a chair car, and a tourist sleeping car and two express cars left the rails. Three tourist sleeping cars, the standard Pullmans and the dining cars remained on the track. The smoking car split the baggage ahead of its just before the floor line and the baggage car landed on top of the crushed smoking car. It is reported to-night that all the wounded will recover.

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION.

New Orleans Had Four Cases and No Deaths Yesterday.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Orleans, Oct. 30.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. to-day:

New cases today, 4; total cases to date, 3,343.

Deaths to-day, none; total deaths to date, 444.

New foci, 1.

Cases under treatment, 25.

Cases discharged, 2,924.

The expected general orders reorganizing and reassigning the marine hospital officers and forces, was issued by Dr. White today and the exodus of regular officers is expected to begin in a few days.

Of the new cases, one is located in Carollton and constitutes a new foci. General efforts are being made to erase this case as that which appeared in the vicinity of Josephine and Chippewa streets, because it is believed that they indicate infection brought into the city.

The total number of cases for the past five days has been 15 with 5 deaths. For the preceding five days the record was 26 cases and four deaths. For the five days before that 38 cases and four deaths. The record of 1878 for the five days ending October 30 was 67 deaths and for the five preceding days 132 deaths.

The South Carolina State Supreme Court yesterday denied the appeal for a rehearing of the case of George Washington Murray, the negro former Representative in Congress from South Carolina, who was convicted of forging the names of ignorant negroes to land leases. He will have to spend the next three years at work in the chain-gang of Sumter county. Mur will be withdrawn.

CZAR'S POWER IS AT AN END

Nicholas Surrendered to Count Witte and Russians Get Practical Freedom

PEOPLE ELECT PARLIAMENT

Cabinet Like That of Great Britain—Sweeping Liberties Granted to People—Radical Revolutionists Refuse to Be Satisfied.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, October 30.—6:05 P. M.—Tonight the autocracy of the Roman office and the old order of things cease to exist in Russia. Emperor Nicholas has surrendered and Count Witte comes into power as minister-president with an imperial mandate which will enable him to convert the farcical national assembly into a real legislative body elected by greatly extended suffrage and to confer upon the people fundamental civil liberties, including free speech.

These welcome tidings reached St. Petersburg shortly before 6 o'clock this evening. Count Witte had spent the day with the Emperor at Peterhof going over the final draft of the manifesto to which he insisted that certain minor modifications be made, and before taking the train for St. Petersburg he telephoned to a friend that the Emperor had affixed his signature and that the imperial mandate comprising the conditions upon which he had agreed to accept office was in his pocket. These include freedom of the press, the right of assembly and the immunity of the person, including the right of habeas corpus.

Count Witte insisted on a cabinet on the British model with a selected premier responsible to the imperial douma or parliament, while the Emperor clung to the appointment of the members of the cabinet on the American plan by the Emperor as chief of State.

The following is the text of the imperial manifesto:

"We, Nicholas The Second, by the grace of God Emperor and autocrat of all the Russias, grand duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that the troubles and agitation in our capitals and in numerous other places fill our heart with excessive pain and sorrow.

"The happiness of the Russian sovereign is indissolubly bound up with the happiness of our people and the sorrow of our people is the sorrow of the sovereign.

"From these disorders may arise great national disuption. They menace the integrity and unity of our Empire.

"The supreme duty imposed upon us by our sovereign office requires us to efface ourself and to use all the force and reason at our command to hasten in securing the unity and coordination of the power of the central government and to assure the success of measures for pacification in all circles of the public, which are essential to the well being of our people.

"We, therefore, direct our government to carry out our inflexible will in the following manner:

"First. To extend to the population the immutable foundations of civic liberty, based on the real inviolability of person; freedom of conscience, speech, union, and association.

"Second. Without suspending the already ordered elections to the state douma, to invite to participation in the douma, so far as the limited time before the convocation of the douma will permit, those classes of the population now completely deprived of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of the principle of the electoral right in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

"Third. To establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforcable without the approval of the state douma and that it shall be possible for the elected of the people to exercise real participation in the supervision of the legality of the acts of the authorities appointed by us.

"We appeal to all faithful sons of Russia to remember their duty towards the fatherland, to aid in terminating these unprecedented troubles and to apply their forces, in co-operation with us, to the restoration of calm and peace upon our natal soil.

"Given at Peterhof in the eleventh year of our reign.

(Signed) "NICHOLAS."

Count Witte Confident.

J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and George Perkins were with Finance Minister Kokovsoff when the latter received the news. It was a dramatic moment. The minister was called to the telephone and when he returned he was greatly agitated, and said:

"Gentlemen, the old order of things has changed. Russia has a constitution."

Revolutionists Not Satisfied.

The news spread like wildfire throughout the city. The revolutionists and active agitators generally declared loudly that the government's promises would no longer suffice and that the strike must be continued. In fact an hour after the news became known the revolutionists took occasion to throw the first bomb in St. Petersburg used since the strike began. The incident occurred near the polytechnic school but there was no fatality. Practically all classes except the socialists and the extreme radicals, however, read the document with delight and amazement, declaring that it could not fail to rally the moderates to the support of Count Witte.

By the irony of fate, while strikers are clamoring for a constitution, it has been impossible to persuade the striking printers to resume work, and therefore, not a single newspaper except the Official Messenger will print the momentous document for distribution tomorrow. Arrangements, however, have been made to placard it on every dead wall in the city and the text will be telegraphed tomorrow to every city, town and hamlet with which there is telegraphic communication. It will also be read in all the churches of the Empire.

All the foreign embassies were notified and lights are burning late tonight in the chancelleries where the news is being put into cipher. Official notifications will also be sent to the Russian ambassadors abroad.

The effect throughout Russia is expected to be instanteous. Some persons high in the government circles believe it still will be necessary to use ball cartridges to suppress the present movement but Count Witte appears confident.

The Count already has tentatively selected the members of his cabinet. He will nimself hold no portfolio. All the present ministers, except those of war, navy and foreign affairs will be retired. Prince Alexis Obelinsky, one of the Count's former assistants in the Ministry of Finance will become Minister of Interior; M. Romanoff, another former assistant to the minister, will take the Finance portfolio; M. Koni, at present senator and Russia's ablest jurist, will be Minister of Justice; M. Krosovsky, president of the St. Petersburg municipal council, will take the Ministry of Education, and M. Ziegler von Schaffhausen, chief of the railroad department of the Ministry of Finance, will become Minister of Ways and Communications.

MURDER MYSTERY HAS BEEN UNRAVELLED

Remains Found in Dress Suit Case Were Those of Actress—Manager of Company Arrested.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Boston, Oct. 30.—That the dismembered body found in a suit case at Winthrop on September 21st is that of Susan Geary, of Cambridge, is confirmed by the girl's family and friends, and of the Boston police department. Miss Geary, was a chorus girl of "The Shepherd King Company," and was known on the stage as Ethel Durrell. She was 21 years of age. Mrs. Geary on Sunday identified three rings taken from the right hand found in the second suit case picked up near the new Charlestown bridge, on Friday last, as those worn by her daughter when she absented herself from the theatrical company on September 10th. Confirmation of Miss Geary's disappearance from the company came from Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the company, to whom Miss Geary was engaged. Mr. Nathan is now in Pittsburg, Pa. According to Nathan, Miss Geary parted from him on the best of terms the day after the company closed its last engagements in this city, and he supposed, he said, that he should see her at the next performance in Lowell on the following day. Instead, however, a message was received by the company's manager, from "P. A. Smith, M. D., Boston," which stated that "Miss Durrell" was suffering from stomach trouble and would be unable to report for several

Nathan Arrested.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—It is the firm conviction of every one who is in touch with the case that, while a charge of murder has been lodged against Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the Shepherd King Company, in connection with the Winthrop suit case mystery, he is not the principal in the affair, and is held because it is believed he can throw more light on the crime than any one else.

That the police have a complete story from Nathan telling all he knows and suspects, is not denied but, aside from a few statements that have leaked out concerning the examination the authorities refuse to disclose the information obtained until after the arrival of the Boston officers, which is expected about 3 o'clock in the morning.

It is known that Nathan admitted that he was intimate with Miss Beary and in his statement he implicated a woman who, he says, conducted a maternity home in Tremont street, Boston.

Nathan stated to the police officer, that he was not aware of the girl's condition. He declared they were to have been married. He said he overheard a conversation between Miss Geary and two girls, who were appearing at the Parks in Hartford, in which one of the girls advised Miss Geary to go to the Tremont Street house for treatment. Nathan said he was not responsible for Miss Geary going to a hospital. That the crime was done by a woman is the belief of the police officials. No hardened criminal, they say would have disposed of the body by cutting it up and packing it in a suit case and then allowing the case to float.

The authorities appear to believe that Nathan was unaware of the murder of the girl, and that he had no part in the crime, but they seem to think he is responsible for her receiving treatment. Nathan is on the verge of collapse, and the police are doing everything to keep him as well as possible.

Nathan's story of having last seen the murdered girl at the subway station at Boyleston and Tremont streets, Boston, on the night of September 9th, is borne out by several members of the company.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 30.—With the State and city police making effort to locate the person who is believed to have caused the death of Susan Geary, of Cambridge, the victim of the dress suit case tragedy, it was believed to-night that the case had entered upon its last stage and that an arrest would be made soon.

Morris Nathan, the lover of the dead girl, has furnished valuable information regarding the case, and the police now have tangible facts upon which to pursue to discuss the latest developments of the mystery, it is known that they are in possession of the name of the physician who performed the operation that caused the death of Miss Geary, and it was believed that this physician would soon be located by the officers. To-night Mrs. Catharine Geary and Miss Evelyn Geary, mother and sister of the dead girl, were summoned to the office of Superintendent of Police William H. Pierce for an extended conference. Earlier in the day Mrs. Geary and her daughter had been closely questioned by Cambridge police detectives.

It was learned that they under rigid questioning and given the authorities additional information regarding the circumstances immediately preceding Susan Geary's disappearance.

Acting upon information elicited from Morris Nathan by the Pittsburg police, Boston detectives to-day searched the Tremont street office of a woman physician, who has advertised extensively in the newspapers. The proprietress of the establishment was not present and one of her assistants whom the police are particularly desirous of locating was also absent.

THE PRESIDENT ON CHOPPY SEAS

Cruiser West Virginia Ran Twenty-Four Hours in Teeth of Fierce Storm

WAVES DANGEROUSLY HIGH

Ship Arrived In Virginia Capes Last Night at 9:30 O'clock—Battleship Squadron Followed to Meet British Prince.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., October 30.—After fighting a northeast gale up the coast for 24 hours, the fierceness of the wind and sea causing a wide divergence from the usual route, the armored cruiser West Virginia, bearing President Roosevelt from New Orleans passed in Cape Henry tonight convoyed by the armored cruisers Maryland, Pennsylvania and Colorado.

Owing to the choppy sea that prevails off Cape Henry and in Lynn Haven Inlet, the plan to tranship President Roosevelt from the West Virginia to the dispatch boat Dolphin for the remainder of his journey to Washington was abandoned long before the squadron reached the capes. Early in the afternoon Admiral Brownson communicated with the Cape Henry station by wireless and instructed that a pilot for the Maryland waters be ready to board the West Virginia off the cape at 7 o'clock this evening.

The admiral expected his squadron would reach the entrance to the Chesapeake by that time but the heavy wind and sea prevented the vessel from coming in until 9:30 P. M. Then it was announced by wire that the President would transfer to the Dolphin off Smith's Point at the mouth of the Potomac river. The Dolphin had started up the bay for this point several hours before.

About half past 8 o'clock the searchlights of the approaching warships could be seen on the horizon from the Cape Henry observatory station and an hour later the outlines of the cruisers were discernible. All four were in column but during the earlier part of the day the Colorado had been separated from the other ships in the storm and efforts to reach her by wireless were unsuccessful for some time.

No stop was made at Cape Henry. The vessels passed into the bay and took the bay channel which runs to the north from the course into Hampton Roads. All during the day the West Virginia had been in communication with the Cape Henry station, about forty messages being exchanged. Some of these were official dispatches in cipher, others personal messages to the President and the officers of the squadron while others directed the movements of the Dolphin and made arrangements for the change in the programme of the President's transfer.

The voyage of the squadron from the South Carolina coast to the capes was a rough one. The northeast gale pitched up a nasty sea and off Hatteras the waves were running dangerously high, but, while no fears were entertained for vessels of the West Virginia's class it was evidently deemed wiser to give the treacherous shoals in that vicinity a wide sweep and the cruisers went out to sea. This caused the delay of the presidential squadron's reaching the capes on schedule time.

Some idea of the roughness of the waters around Cape Henry and the impracticability of the President transhipping there is given by the act that when a Maryland pilot was asked for by Admiral Brownson to take the West Virginia up the bay it was necessary for the pilot boat to go into the sheltered waters of Hampton Roads, twenty miles inland to pick up a pilot, when there were pilots ashore at Cape Henry who could not get out to the boat.

The wireless telegraph station at the Norfolk navy yard reported the receipt of a message from President Roosevelt to Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, in which the President thanked Governor Herrick for his message congratulating him upon his escape from injury in the collision accident as he was leaving New Orleans. The message from the President to Governor Herrick said: "Many thanks. I warmly reciprocate your good wishes."

President on the Bridges.

United States Armored Cruiser West Virginia, off Currituck Point, via Portsmouth, Va., October 30.—From midnight till noon today the armored cruiser West Virginia, carrying President Roosevelt faced a heavy galo from the northward and eastward with a heavy head sea, making it advisable to slow down from 20 to 18 knots. In the afternoon the West Virginia resumed the speed of 20 knots and against a stiff breeze from the northward and eastward proceeded with a moderate sea on our beam. At 4:30 this afternoon the U. S. S. Maryland, a sister ship of the West Virginia, and the Pennsylvania and Colorado, came up and after rendering the customary salute and honors to the President's flag took their position in squadron. The President spent this morning on the forward bridges and this afternoon on the after-briges.

To Meet the Prince.

The two battleship divisions of the North Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, sailed from Hampton Roads at 6 o'clock this morning and at 8.40 o'clock, were reported by the U. S. Weather Observer at Cape Henry as proceeding up Chesapeake bay for Annapolis, where they go to prepare for a reception to the British North Atlantic squadron under command of Prince Louis of Battenburg, which are due at Annapolis in the next few days.

The vessels which proceeded to Annapolis were the battleships Kentucky, Kearsarge, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Maine and Massachuetts, and the gunboats Mayflower and Yankton.

Will Arrive In Washington This Morning.

Washington, October 31.—President Roosevelt transferred to the United States district Dolphin and aboard that vessel left Wolftrap light on the last leg of his journey to Washington at 12:40 o'clock this morning. He is scheduled to reach Washington today. The following dispatch was received at the Washington navy yard early this morning:

"Navy yard, Washington, D. C., please inform the Navy Department that the Dolphin with the President aboard left Wolftrap light at 12:40 A. M. and should arrive at the navy yard at Washington between 10 A. M. and 11 A. M. tomorrow morning.

NOTED WAR CHARACTER DEAD.

Kansas Preacher Who Participated In Border Warfare.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Kansas City, October 30.—The Rev. D. H. Fisher, who died yesterday at Baldwin, Kan., was one of the most famous characters produced by the trying days of the border warfare in Kansas and in the subsequent four years of the Civil War. Because of his activity as a free State man and his association with United States Senator "Jim Lane, the Rev. Fisher was marked by the Quantrell band and his escape from capture and death during the Lawrence massacre is one of the most thrilling and remarkable incidents of that affair. Dr. Fisher was one of the few men who ever refused a United States Senatorship. When Senator Lane died, Governor Crawford announced his intention of appointing Dr. Fisher to fill the vacancy. Later the Rev. Mr. Fisher said, in relating his reasons for refusing the offer: "My wife and I laid the matter before God in prayer. The decision aws against accepting the appointment."

WARM WIRELETS.

A heavy snow fell in western Missouri and in most of Kansas yesterday.

In deciding the case of J. W. Guthrie vs. H. L. Harkness, appealed from Utah, the Supreme Court of the United States Court yesterday held that a stockholder in a National bank is entitled to inspect the books of the bank.

On recommendation of the Charleston Board of Health, the quarantine which has been in force since the first week in August was raised yesterday. The quarantine was lifted against New Orleans, Pensacola and all points infected with yellow fever. Inspectors ray is the largest landholder in Sumter county.

In the United States District Court at Charleston yesterday A. G. Colloch, editor of the Darlington (S. C.) News, filed a petition in vountary bankruptcy. His assets are placed at $28,663, liabilities $53,508. I has been several years since a South Carolina newspaper went into bankruptcy and Editor Colloch has the sympathy of his newspaper friends.

At Floyd Court House, Va., yesterday the jury in the case of John Richards, tried for the murder of his rival suitor, Maurice Francis, of Roanoke, failed to agree and was discharged. The trial lasted thirteen days and the case went to the jury Saturday evening. The men stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal. A new trial will be had, probably next April. Francis was formerly a public school teacher, and all the parties in the case were prominent.

The British ship Gloescap, Captain Spicer, which arrived at Charleston October 17th from Rio Janerlo, was attached by the United Circuit court yesterday, and the captain arrested and required to give bond on the complaint of three sailors recently sent by Captain Spicer to jail on charge of insubordination. The documents allege damage by incarceration and pray for relief in the sum of $6,000. Captain Spicer gave bond in the sum of $4,000 and a deputy is on board the ship.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday refused to advance on its docket the case of Warren B. Wilson vs. Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury. The proceeding is an effort to enjoin the Secretary from paying out money for the construction of the Panama Canal on the ground that the act of Congress authorizing the payment is unconstitutional. Mr. Wilson is a Chicago attorney.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her children, who on Saturday started on a cruise down the potomac on the Sylph, returned to Washington yesterday. The party was well and enjoyed the trip.

"THE CLOVER CLUB."

Popular Organization of Young Men of the Fifth Ward.

The Clover Club has been organized by a party of about seventy-five young men of the Fifth Ward, who have opened comfortable club headquarters in the old Fifth Ward hook and Ladder hall, Fifth street near Castle. The place has been provided with reading tables, pool and billard table, games and many other forms of amusements and members are looking forward to many pleasant evening there during the Winter. The following officers have been elected:

President—Joe Curtis.
Vice-President—D. E. Costin.
Secretary—Chas. Capps.
Treasurer—James M. Hall.

The objects of the club are stated as both social and political, and already the organization is quite popular with among the best young men in the community where it is founded. A series of debates on public questions on Thursday nights is a feature of the club life, and one which has been found very entertaining and profitable.

Potatoes on Lower Cape Fear.

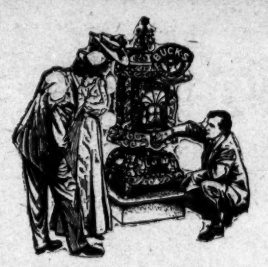
The agricultural editor of the Star became boastful Sunday morning of a sweet potato, weighing four pounds and seven ounces, sent down from Sampson county by Mr. E. C. Herring. The lower Cape Fear goes the land of huckleberries one better. The agricultural editor yesterday received another contribution in the potato line—a fine Norton yam, weighing five pounds and eight ounces, raised by Mr. George Johnson on "The Oaks," Mr. James Sprunt's plantation, down the river. The potato is symmetrical in form and is a whopper. Brunswick is matched against the world for sweet potatoes. The six-pounder from "The Oaks" was sent up in competition before the biggest ones were reached on the plantation.

Funeral of Mr. Doyle.

The funeral of the late Mr. George W. Doyle was conducted at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning from Saint James' Episcopal church, a large number of friends and relatives having been in attendance. The services were by Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of the parish, assisted by the Rev. Harold Thomas, assistant rector. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery, the pall-bearers having been Capt. A. L. DeRosset, Capt. A. D. Cazaux, Messrs. L. S. Belden, James Willson, Benj. Bell and M. J. Heyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew Bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Drew have the sincere sympathy of many friends in the loss of their infant daugther, Bettie Lee, aged five months and 24 days, whose death occurred at the family home in this city, No. 801 Ann street, at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. The funeral was conducted at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence, Rev. A. W. Seabreaze, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and Rev. Edward Wootten, officiating. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.



Note the Extra Heavy Cone Center Grate.

In Buck's Hot Blast Heaters with plenty of space between the edge of grate and fire pot. This enables ashes to drop through the pan. The grate is heavy, self-cleaning and clinkers will not form on the grate. It mashes and crushes all foreign matter.

Coal -- Wood -- Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price, they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another ton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.

Anthracite Egg	$6.50 per ton
Anthracite Stove	6.50 per ton
Anthracite Chestnut	6.50 per ton
Best Tennessee Jellico Lump Coal	5.50 per ton
Best Virginia Lump Coal	5.00 per ton
Wood cut any desired length	1.25 per load
